Memorial Rooms Require Names

The big drive to name Y Center rooms will take up the first four days of next week, Sunday through Thursday, announced Vince Breglio, Executive Assistant to the ASBYU president.

Students are invited to submit their proposals to name different areas in the huge new building after the architectural symbols of BYU. The naming will also include people, he said.

THE ONLY restrictions on the names that may be proposed are that the person must have been connected to BYU, and that the tradition be such concrete symbols as the Victory Bell, the Y

The focus for the four days will be in the Smith Family Living Center where blueprints, architects' drawings of rooms and samples of materials to be used in the room sets and drapes will be available.

NAMES MAY BE submitted in only names for the area being tentatively each day will be accepted.

The recreation area and cafeteria will be named Monday Tuesday, the entire fifth floor where the executive offices are housed will be named.

Wednesday's schedule is for the level 1 art gallery and 450-seat theatre. Thursday will wind up the naming with the top-level skyroom and the giant ballroom.

Final selection will be made by the Board of Trustees.

Communism ...

'A New KKK' Proposed By Clergyman

by Kent Sibbett
City Editor

"I have a sense of warning and hope in times of great crisis," said Uriah J. Fields, former secretary of the Montgomery Improvement Association.

MINISTER Fields spoke last night at the Wasatch School on the topic of "The New KKK." President Kennedy, Martin Luther King and Premier Khrushchev were proposed as advancing Communism.

President Kennedy is spokesman for capitalism. "Will America's collectivist, in his search for the new frontier, let us loose our present frontiers?" proposed Minister Fields.

MARTIN Luther King is the Christian. "Will this captive spokesman for a captive people, in endeavoring to free the captives, like Americans capture of Communism?" he asked.

Khrushchev is the spokesman for Communism. "Will the Communists prophecy that they will bury us?" asked Minister Fields.

"The KKK is a strange new alliance leading to socialism and ultimately to Communism," he continued.

Student 'Poor' After Accident

BYU student Ross North, 22, technician, chemistry major, 181 N. 800 East, Ogden, is listed in "poor" condition, Thursday, at the Salt Lake LDS Hospital following a scooter-car accident.

MR. NORTH was enroute to the university when the car and scooter collided at 800 E. 400 S. Green.

The investigating officer is Captain Franklin P. Lindquist, 2891 N. 220 E., Provo, with a citation for failure to yield to oncoming traffic.

Mr. North, Toronto, Canada, received emergency treatment at the BYU Medical Center before being transferred to Salt Lake,

California Session To Hear Women's Department Head

Dr. Leona Holbrook, chairman of the Department of Physical Education for Women at BYU is attending a national Physical Education of College Women conference in Pacific Grove, Calif.

She will address the Conference of Education section and the concluding banquet of the conference, which is being held Nov. 7-9.

DURING THE PAST 12 years Dr. Holbrook has served as president and committee chairman of the executive committee of the society.

She is president of the National Association for Physical Education of College Women of which the Western Division is a geographical Society.

Speakers participating in the study conference include Dr. Helmut Hoffmann, child psychologist; Alice K. Myrick, social worker; Mrs. James C. Ure, author, educational consultant; Sonora Sorenson, teacher; Dr. Jack Truncale, human biologist; Ernest Eberhard, religious educator; Dr. Ralph Smith, educational philosopher and Dr. Lyman Olson, pediatrician.

Concert Series ...

Scottish Tenor Will Perform At Y

Scottish tenor, performer of the Metropolitan and Vienna State Operas, Murray Dickie, will perform at BYU Monday.

He will perform at 8:15 p.m. in the Smith Auditorium as a participant in the BYU Community Concert series.

Mr. Dickie has sung leading roles with almost every major opera company in the world including the Teatro Alla Scala in Milan, Teatro Liceo in Barcelona, Convent Garden in London and Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires.

Mr. Dickie made his first appearance in America in the Metropolitan Opera production of "Die Meistersinger" in 1962. This fall he will return to new roles with the Opera.

IN ADDITION to his opera and oratorio career, Mr. Dickie is also a recitalist. Featured performer in a number of music festivals, he appeared as recitalist in concerts commemorating the 150th jubilee of the Society of Music Friends in Vienna in 1962.

Mr. Dickie has also made several major recordings. His most recent is Mahler's "Das Lied Von Der Erde" with Paul Kletzki conducting.

Khrushchev Proclaims 'Dead Bodies' Warning

MOSCOW, (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said Wednesday that if the American Army had tried to force a Berlin convoy through the Soviet blockade it would have had to roll "over our dead bodies" and might have triggered a war.

In the first high-level Soviet comment on the 41-hour blockade of a U.S. convoy, Khrushchev said the Americans had been allowed to proceed only after they obeyed Soviet control procedures.

IT IS DIFFICULT to say what would have happened if they had not agreed to that procedure, he said. "It is possible you and I would not be here today. We would not have triggered a war over our dead bodies."

Khrushchev's statement that the Americans had bowed to Soviet control procedures on the Autobahn was disclosed by the U.S. ambassador to Berlin. He said the convoy had not complied in any way with the Soviet demands which called on the U.S. troops to dismount for a head count.

KHRUSHCHEV'S remarks were made during a three-hour meeting with a group of 20 visiting American business leaders.

While insisting the Soviets would not have given way to force, Khrushchev added: "We didn't want friction of that sort," he said. "Our desire is to have good and friendly relations."

Education Conference To Be Held

"Basic Human Values for Child Education" is the theme of the annual state study conference of the National Association for Child Education.

The conference will be held at BYU Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

PLANS FOR the conference include an informative general session and tours and exhibits, said Hazel Clark, general chairman.

Hosts at the study conference will be the Provo, Alpine, Nebo and BYU campus branches of the Association for Childhood Education International.

In 1962 the Executive Board of the ACEL invited experts from other fields outside education to join a "Colloquy" on the subject of basic human values for children. This year the National Conference of Education will invite a panel of specialists to discuss the theme.

Participants participating in the study conference include Dr. Helmut Hoffmann, child psychologist; Alice K. Myrick, social worker; Mrs. James C. Ure, author, educational consultant; Sonora Sorenson, teacher; Dr. Jack Truncale, human biologist; Ernest Eberhard, religious educator; Dr. Ralph Smith, educational philosopher and Dr. Lyman Olson, pediatrician.

British Author Will Address BYU Students

British author T. H. White will discuss "The Pleasures of Learning" with students three hours from 7-10 a.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Mr. White admits an insatiable passion for learning. His enthusiasm for learning has led him to explore medieval lands, the air plane, train falcons, fence paint and even try deepsea diving in old fashioned equipment.

ARTHURIAN ENGLAND has been the background for many of Mr. White's novels. His story "The Once and Future King," was the basis for the Broadway musical "Camelot." Mr. White has made an extensive study of the life of the Roman emperor Hadrian.

Meet Our Staff . . .*Business Manager 'Tied-up' In Ideas, Ads, Schoolworkby Nancy Stephenson
University Feature Writer

University Business Manager Marvin Bell finds himself so tied up in his work that everything he sees or hears becomes an idea for an advertisement. "I live advertising every minute of every day," he said.

Mr. Bell feels that the Daily Universe is unique in that it is completely put out by a student staff. "This is what gives me a feeling of pride when I see the finished paper," he said.

Bell's aim in managing the paper is to project an image to students, merchants and consumers that the Universe is not just a "student paper" but a business in the true sense of the word.

AFTER attending Utah State Agricultural College as a freshman, Bell drafted into the army for two years. In 1958 he left home to serve an LDS mission in the Central Atlantic States. Hunting and fishing are Bell's primary hobbies. He also enjoys golf.

A SOCIOLOGY major, Bell is planning to complete graduation requirements in February. He will remain at BYU to graduate work in public relations and advertising.

Bell decided on his field of study three summers ago while he was working for a small newspaper in Nebraska selling ads. "I'm not sure what made me decide it just sort of happened," he said.

UPON RETURNING to BYU that fall, he started working for Universe Advertising, Inc., and was appointed Business Manager for the second year last spring.

Bell finds that he becomes irritated with people who criticize the paper without knowing or even trying to understand the problems that it and other student publications face in putting a daily paper out in addition to going to school.

"THEY DON'T realize the time that is spent on each issue, he said.

Campus Comment . . .*Beware!

Editor's Note: The following letter unpublished has been received by the Daily Universe. It concerns the Book of Mormon which was published by the Lodi magazine last month. We print it here for your information.

To the Students of Brigham Young University,
"Mormon from Mormon"

I met him walking between Freshman English and Political Science 210 during the fall semester of 1961. He was a member of Dr. Laudow's Book of Mormon Class also. Second semester we took English 210, Science 212, Science 212 and Philosophy 180 together. We formed a study team. We talked about politics: campus and national. We discussed LDS doctrine and philosophy. We discussed the Constitution and Freedom Riders. Life in general and BYU codes.

During that year I saw an evolution that was the manifestation of a revolution. During high school he was conservative. After a trip to Africa to visit his mother he was changing his ideas and his values. As time passed, liberalism became the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. He confided that he knew that ex-members of the church often led to destruction. He was aware of the danger.

Spring semester ended, but he promised to visit me at the Mission Home in Salt Lake City. Six weeks later, a Sunday afternoon, we walked by the temple and sat down. During a two-hour discussion, I got the biggest test of my faith that I have ever had. He was living with a high school French teacher, a man who had been through the temple and had disengaged his vows. This man guided Jeff as Socrates developed Plato.

God was nothing but a crutch for weaklings, Joseph Smith was an impostor, and one should not believe in the Book of Mormon. Besides, if God was real, the religious diversity wouldn't exist. We were dumbfounded. His arguments were those of a stubborn atheist and he felt entitled to Saul's experience. "It happened to Paul. Why couldn't he experience the same thing?"

Bertrand Russell was Moses. Love is a habit. Like any habit it can be broken. But with a more physical act, because it is a physical significance.

After dropping out of Princeton, he is writing anti-Mormon literature. A cleverly disguised article has been printed by a national magazine as an article concerning the nature of the Church. He has given some of doubt in the heads of the saints and misrepresent a divine doctrine to a nation turned.

It is my hope that my "Mormon from Mormon" will help those who have not the same perspective on the author of another. Let them resolve the troubles in their hearts. Beware. He is sincere,

Dear Editor:

Due to an "excerpt" from a letter of mine published in TIME magazine, I would like to make some corrections as to my intended meaning. My position can best be clarified by submitting the letter in its entirety, word for word, as it was written. As will be seen, TIME used only that part which concerned their purpose.

Dear Sir:

"Thank TIME for the informative and interesting article on the Mormons. Notwithstanding a few minor inaccuracies (e.g. worthy men of sales are not Deacons, not Priests) it was an objective observation of one segment of America's momentous racial awakening."

"Only with patience, understanding and charity will equality and peace be given to man everywhere. I believe all men everywhere, regardless of personal religious convictions would agree that 'there never was a period there was not a time, when the love of God was needed more than it is now.'

"As shown, however, there are those unfortunate few, who, while claiming true allegiance to Christ and leadership and doing the divine will, are guilty of publicly suggesting what the Pope should or should not do."

'Romeo' Well Received By Patrons

by Joel L. Justesen

University Drama Critic

A matinee production of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet before a capacity crowd Wednesday night successfully opened the major theater season for this year.

Dr. Preston R. Gledhill, director, presented a cast that was well balanced and made up by two recent students more familiar with classical productions at the X, the cast had an understanding of lines and emotions that was well received.

IN HER PORTRAYAL of Juliet, Jane Culley presented a beautiful and gracious character in looks if not entirely in actions. She was at times a little too mature and dramatic for the 14-year-old maiden. Her emotions, however, were believable and she reacted well to the tensions of the play.

Dan Staples as Romeo is to be commended. He gives an understanding to his lines and a truthfulness of portrayal throughout the production that is commendable.

HE GIVES THE part an attitude of manliness, and yet he is able to maintain the youthful enthusiasm which the role demands. The agony upon hearing of his banishment is both convincing and dignified.

As Juliet's nurse, Sylvia Butler adds a delightful relief to the tragic play. Her character is amusing and well performed. Also with commendation Jay Baumgardner as Sampson.

CLIFF CABANILLA as Mercutio presents a character that is unfortunately difficult to separate from previous roles he has played. Neal Barth as Lord Capulet adds strength to the production with his portrayal of Juliet's father.

West as Benvolio and Alan Nash as Friar Laurence both make the most of their respective roles.

IN GENERAL, the acting is to be commended. It is a pleasure to witness a production of such understanding and warmth.

Technically the play has been a tremendous undertaking. Charles Henson has designed a set which has required a large crew to support it. Directed by Robert Struthers, the technical director.

ON FIRST impression the set appears heavy and bulky. However, when lighted and filled with action it takes on the proper perspective and enhances the production.

There were scenes when the stage did look over-crowded, and this probably due to the lack of depth created by the circular stage.

There were also times when the effects of the circular stage

Y Girls Learn Helpful Hints For Washing

by Carol Cawley
Society Writer

The first of a series of demon- strations on different phases of home management was held recently for the girls in Heritage Halls.

Mrs. Alice Dunn, house manager, conducted a laundry demonstration. The purpose of this demonstration was to help the girls prevent some of the problems that might arise when doing their laundry.

"Water is in an extremely hard water district," said Mrs. Dunn.

Therefore it is advisable to use a water softener in your washer.

Mrs. Dunn told the girls that one of the best water softeners to use is the water softener which makes clothes whiter and cleaner. Read the directions to know how much to use, she advised.

Another tip she gave is that girls can do better laundry if the washer is not over loaded.

Eight to nine pounds is about the best weight load.

Housing Maintenance suggests that the girls in the halls use a low sudsing detergent, such as Dash and Aid.

'Carnival' Tryouts To Begin Thursday

Tryouts for "Carnival," the musical production for this year will be held beginning Thursday in 134 Page at 7:30 p.m. Additional tryouts will be held Friday at 7:00 p.m. in 134 Page and Saturday from 1:30 p.m. in 290 E. on Lower Campus.

New Policy Listed About Latecomers

A new policy is being initiated this year at all theater productions, announced Dr. Harold L. Hansen, administrator of the Dramatic Arts Dept. Doors to the Smith Auditorium will close at 8:15 and reserved seats will not be held past 8:10 p.m. Anyone coming late will have to enter by the rear doors and will take seats remaining in the rear.

Meals For Midterms Suggested By Coeds

by Lynnette Webb
Society Writer

Midterms and meal preparation could be a problem this week for BYU coeds. Since there are several meals to eat and activities planned, meals may seem hard to think about during all the excitement. The Food and Nutrition Department of the College of Family Living has suggested some excellent ideas for meals that will not only satisfy the hunger but also provide nutritional value. One important need to keep in mind is that these quick-and-easy meals are much more expensive than meals which we make from scratch and require time.

Here is a good menu for girls who want to keep up grades and yet budget dollars.

- Split Pea soup with crackers
- Lettuce Wedge with 1000 island dressing
- Warm Apple Sauce with cinnamon
- Milk

The split-pea soup could be made up the previous evening and would then only have to be heated. The salad and apple sauce could be prepared while the soup is heating.

This menu is easy to fix but more expensive because nearly everything on the menu can be purchased.

- Canned ham
- Canned beans
- French beans with a tangy sauce
- Wedge salad
- Butterflake rolls
- Angel-food cake with whipped cream and frozen strawberries.

The ham could be slipped in the oven early. The yams, beans, and rolls heated just before dinner.

Just before time to eat, whip the cake and slice it. This type of meal would be ideal if time is an important element in the preparation.

Senior Members To Vote Thursday

SENIOR CLASS CABINET and class members are to meet for voting on the final class projects. Each project will be discussed by all aspects and those involved are asked to attend. The meeting will take place in the Alumni House Thursday at 5 p.m.

A meeting and party will take place Thursday evening for the TRIBE OF MANY FEATHERS and SONS OF AMMON in 81 Knight Bldg. starting at 7 p.m.

URUGUAYAN CLUB will be holding a "meeting and party for all the members Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in 115 Knight Bldg."

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA will feature Robert K. Thomas the Director of Honor's Program at their next meeting which is to be held Thursday evening starting at 7:30 p.m. in 115 Knight Bldg. Thomas' subject is "Problems of the Intelligent Girl." All members are required to attend.

Changes For Dance Given By Air Society

The Arnold Air Society dance scheduled for Friday evening at 9 p.m. has been revamped, according to Jim Martin, chairman of the affair.

There will be no advance ticket sales. Dress has been changed from semi-formal to casual dress, and students may attend stag or drag. Tickets will be sold at the door at 50 cents per person.

The event, themed "You Don't Know Me," will be underwritten. Playing in the Smith Family Living Center will be Dave Tucker, and in the East Gym will be the Preston Keys Combo.

Referrals of cake and punch will be served.

In exchange for the dance are pledges to the Arnold Air Society. General dance chairmen are Barry Sanders, Norbert Janes, and Jim Martin. Intermission will be handled by David Rapier and Jim Pouton. Working on decorations are Frank Apolonia, Chris Jeffries, and Mark Jensen.

Chairmen of refreshments are Richard Sulco and David Shaffer. Other members are Jim Short, and physical set-up, Victor Kamp. Publicity directors are Sandra MacLeplong and Jeff Jones.

Painters Discussed At Culture Lecture

The second in the Culture Committee's series of forums and lectures will be a discussion of the French Impressionistic painters by Wesley Burnside of the Art Department. The forum will be held in 115 Knight Bldg. at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Following the lecture by Mr. Burnside, the period will be open for a question and answer section.

The studentbody is invited to attend.

Y Soccermen On Road Test Salt Lake Squad

The BYU kickers travel this weekend to meet the Explorers of Salt Lake in Riverside Park at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

THE Y SOCCERmen are currently leading the Utah Soccer

League with a record of 21-0. They smashed Germania of Salt Lake, 120, in their opening games were held to a 33 deadlock by Hollandia and rolled over Utah State's Aggie eleven, 140 last Saturday.

The Explorers are composed mainly of Norwegian students from the University of Utah, who sponsor themselves in all their League games.

ALTHOUGH THEY lost a decided battle in the first half, 24-21, the Explorers are stronger than last season and could prove the Y's toughest opposition thus far this year.

The BYU kickers have had little trouble keeping possession of the ball in their games so far this season and expect for Hollandia to have had little trouble in tallying goals.

In their first three encounters they have notched 29 goals while holding the opposition to three.

Mountain Cats Seek Road Winnin From George Washington Colonia

by Stan Hodge
Universe Asst. Sports Editor

When the Cougars this weekend trip to the East Coast this weekend it will be to meet the George Washington Colonials, a team just as everywhere as the Mountain Cats.

COLONIAL COACH Jim Camp, now in his third year at George Washington, was faced with the task of replacing fifteen lettermen lost from the 1962 squad. In the process he needed to replace the entire line, including his signal callers, both offense and defense, and bolster the center of the line which he found very weak in lettermen.

Their backfield, however, boasts a greatly improved running attack by tailback Jackie Drummond. Drummond has been named to the Southern Conference team twice and is named as a potential All-American.

EXCELLING in broken field running, he led the nation in kickoff returns as a sophomore and again in his return this year. This included an 82-yard return for a TD against Florida State in his collegiate debut, and an 86-yard score against William and Mary.

Thus far this year Drummond has led all other Colonial bell carriers, piling up a total of 314 yards in five games. Drummond is assisted on the running attack by Jim Johnson at fullback, Fred D'Orazio at wingback, and Merv Holland at quarterback.

IN MERV HOLLAND, Coach Camp has the seventh ranked passer in the nation. Holland has completed 53 of an attempted 98 aortals for a .541 percentage, compiling 649 yards in the process.

Most of the Colonials' troubles thus far this season have come as a result of their line's inexperience. Not a single letterman remains from last year's squad to fill the tackle slot and the guard situation is extremely short on depth.

THOUGH inexperienced, the tackle position this year features a potential great in Doug McNeil, 6-0, 230, and converted center Steve Lapine. At the same time, one of the best guards in the Southern Conference is found on the Colonial squad in the person of Junior Perriello, a 1 man tackle in 1962.

Last year's fans will remember 13 who lost the Cougars seven at the hands of the Gators. It's a clutch the Colonials in the evening too, and George Washington will be hard pressed to repeat the performance.

EVERYONE will remember victory the Colonials fought with in 1962. Can they do it again?

One interesting sidelight this year's game will be a pair of sophomore tackles hoping to action for George Washington. They are Steve Zier and Roger Rye, 6-2, 215 lbs.—identical twins from Rye, N.Y.

Kittens Test Air Force Frosh Friday

BYU's freshman football coaches are preparing the Kittens for Friday's game with the Air Force Frosh at the Colorado Springs with an "I" on the work-sheet regarding Friday afternoon's game.

A BIG TEAM effort enabled the Kittens to score in every quarter against Utah State's freshman last Friday and win 35-5. When Coach Apostol was asked if he was pleased with the team's play, he said, "We're still working on it and we're not satisfied."

The "I" in the Kitten camp this week — quarterback Virgil Carter, Carter, who threw 15 passes and completed 11 against the Aggie freshmen, sprained an ankle and it is not known if he will be ready for the Air Force game.

THE FALCON frosh use a multiple defense. They run the majority of their plays from the winged-T and the double-wing. The Kittens are expecting the young Falcons to uncork a flurry of passes.

If Carter recovers and is ready for action, this game could be labeled "airborne football." The line of scrimmage is the Rambler of Carter's offense. The Rambler has accounted for three Kitten touchdowns. Kent Oborn caught the first Quarter touchdown throw mid-way in the first quarter to put the BYU freshmen in front 13-0. War kicked the extra point and added two more four more before the game ended.

The next two BYU touchdowns came on a pass interception and a 74-yard return by Oborn later in the first quarter and a 57-yard punt return also by Oborn with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

Meanwhile, Carter had been standing pin-pointing passes to ends Bob Alphin, Ivan Turpin, Gordon Jennings, and Halfback Bill Garrison. With six minutes left in the third quarter Carter threw a six-yard pass to Jennings who took it to extend the Kitten lead to 28-6.

THE FINAL Kitten score came early in the fourth quarter, Carter threw a 24-yard pass to end Tony Cox who caught the perfectly-timed throw as he crossed the goal line.

Defensively it was entirely a team effort. There were very few times when a tackler would go or three men were on in the majority of the tackles. Linemen Kim Moses, Mel Olson, Grant Wilson, Earl Hedani, Terry Newson, and Delroy Lavatai did most of the work along the front line.

ENDS ALLPHIN and Turpin

crashed through the Rambler line several times to stop the ball carrier short of the scrimmage line.

In the secondary Fraser Heatley, Doug Schow, Bob Ashdown, Jon Graves, Carter and Obern all teamed up to contain any Rambler threat.

The lone Rambler score came four minutes after the beginning of the second half on a pass to halfback Dave Clark from the 13-yard line for the score.
